

Catherine M. Curtis

June 24, 2014

Catherine M. Curtis, age 55, of Bowling Green, passed away June 24, 2014, at the SSM St. Joseph Hospital West in Lake St. Louis.

Memorial services will be held at a later date.

Catherine was born November 25, 1958 in Hannibal the daughter of Leslie K and Gertie C. Wheeler Kenzler.

Survivors include two daughters Jamie Kerr and husband Dustin of Bowling Green and Jessica Hubble of Troy; one brother Fred Kenzler and wife Phoebe of Anderson, SC; four sisters Carol Stewart and husband Floyd W. of New London, Patricia McMahan of Honea Path, SC, Donna Evans of Honea Path, SC, Ruth Ann Carlson and husband David of Alamo, TX; and other nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents and one brother Kenneth Kenzler.

Catherine lived in Bowling Green and Hannibal most of her life but lived two years in Manchester. She worked as a cook at Ayerco and Hardees. Catherine enjoyed playing cards, going to yard sales, playing with her three cats but most of all she loved spending time with her two daughters. She was a good Mom.

Memorials may be made to the family in c/o Mudd-Veach Funeral Home.

Cremations rites were under the direction of Mudd-Veach Funeral Home in Bowling Green.

Comments

---

“ Jamie Kerr lit a candle in memory of Catherine M. Curtis

Jamie Kerr - July 05, 2016 at 04:45 PM

---

“ My best wishes and sympathy to the family of "Kitty" as I have known them for many years, going back to the time when they lived in Louisiana.

This is a difficult time but God is your strength and help.

D. Randall Cone - June 25, 2015 at 01:55 PM

---

“ Kitty was a great lady and a very hard worker. I loved working with her at Ayerco she could always make the customers and employees smile She will be missed by many customers and employees my prayers and thoughts are with her family

Dana Sinopole - June 25, 2015 at 01:55 PM