October 8, 1907 - November 3, 2015

Dora Frances (Dodie) Wells Harness passed away Tuesday, November 2, 2015 following a short illness. Dodie was blessed with a long and productive life of 108 years, 25 days. Funeral services will be held 11:00 a.m., Friday, November 6, 2015 at the Hopke Christian Church in New Hartford. Burial will be in the Ashley Fairview Cemetery. Visitation will be from 5:00 – 8:00 p.m. Thursday at the Bibb-Veach Funeral Home in Bowling Green.

Miss Dodie was born October 8, 1907 in New Hartford, the daughter of Lemuel A. and Mary Higginbotham Wells. She attended Hopke School during her grade school years. In her high school and college years, Miss Dodie attended and graduated in 1927 from Christian College, Columbia, Missouri carrying the traditional ivy chain as her Mother had done when she graduated from Christian College in 1900. Other than school and traveling, Miss Dodie lived all of her life at the New Hartford family farm and home built in the 1872 that she cherished.

In 1947, she married Cecil E. Harness who preceded her in death. They were the parents of one son, Cecil Wells Harness who survives. Dodie's Mother died following childbirth at an early age while Miss Dodie was a student at Christian College. When Dodie returned to the Family home following her graduation, Dodie became Mother to her youngest sister, Jimmie and they remained as close as any Mother and Daughter until Jimmie's death. Miss Dodie became an elementary school teacher in the Middletown and Silex Schools. To this day, she has former pupils who recount how much they enjoyed her as a teacher. Miss Dodie was a savvy business woman, helping her Father with his various ventures as well as her own.

Dodie was preceded in death by her Mother and Father, four sisters, Virginia Wells Buffum, Mettie Anne Wells, Lucy Wells Forsyth, Jimmie Wells Dolan and one brother, Lemuel A. Wells, Jr. A niece, Mary Frances Dolan, nephew Pat Dolan, III and great nephews, Eric Buffum and Robert Wells also preceded her in death. Surviving in addition to her son are a daughter in law, Lorraine Harness; two grandchildren Cecil Wells Harness, Jr of New Hartford and Anne Harness Ganten of Virginia; four great grandchildren, Cecil Dustin Harness, Sarah Ann Harness, Samuel Ganten and Alexandre Ganten; nephews, Frank Buffum, John Buffum, Lemuel Wells, III, Jim Wells and their Families and Sister-in-Law Claudia Wells.

Dodie remained a member of the Bowling Green Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution until her death, served for many years as Secretary-Treasurer of the Ashley Fairview Cemetery, was an active member of the Eureka Homemaker's Club, served on the Pike County Nurses' Education Board, was a member of and treasurer for the Hopke Christian Church and was a strong supporter of Christian College (now Columbia College).

Miss Dodie will be most remembered for her great love for her family, her kindness to others and her ability to make all around her comfortable in body and spirit.

Memorials are requested for Ashley Fairview Cemetery, Columbia College, or Pike County Memorial Hospital.

“ Ms. Dodie was a proper and gracious woman. We could all take a lesson from her life book and be well blessed. God bless her family and community of friends and acquaintances who will miss her wit and charm.
I remember her paying me for a 69 cent long distance phone call with a dozen eggs. Of course I told her numerous times to forget about the charge. I finally accepted the eggs as she would have no other way! And she had raised the chickens and gathered the eggs from her small flock.

“ Mrs. Harness was my 3rd grade teacher at Silex. I had just transferred in from the Catholic school at Millwood and was scared. She was THE teacher I most remember from my school days and I absolutely loved her. So much so that Cathy Mudd and I spent the night at her house one night the summer after 3rd grade. She introduced me to cantaloupe! I have so many memories of her that I could not begin to list them all and they are all fond memories. Our deepest sympathy for your loss but please take consolation in the fact that she touched many lives in such good ways and she will NEVER be forgotten.

Sincerely,

Kent and Peggy (Havlik) Hufty

“ Our whole family enjoyed visiting with Miss Dodie, my Grand-daughters went to visit her in the Nursing home last Summer, and then went to visit the home place. They were really fond of her. She always had good conversation, talking about the old days. She will be missed by many. Prayers and sympathy for the family. The Grimmett's

“ What a lovely delightful lady she was...but my first recollection of her was just so funny and cute. She won the "hog calling contest for women" when the older barn for the FFA was about where the BG Pool is now or in that area. She came walking out from between the cars in the parking lot with a big old fashion basket on her arm with the corn in it and really "calling" the pigs! She won. Later in life when my relatives were also residents of Moore-Pike and her brother was there, she came to visit with her little cookie tin full of wonderful plain delicious sugar cookies that she served to all in the dining room. She parked her car just "anyway in the street"..it was ok!!!! Prayers and sympathy to her family but you have always treated her great and I think she did the same. Darlene Bruch.

“ Our family adored cousin Dodie. She was my mom's cousin and my mom always referred to her as "A National Treasure". She was very much like a mother to my mother (Mary Pearl, who grew up in Bowling Green and was one of the Johnson twins who lost their own mother at a very young age). Dodie was always an inspiration to all our kids and extended family. We live in Chicago, but would cherish our visits with Dodie in her historic home that was like a museum of Civil War and family history. My daughter Mary wrote a book about her in grammar school and her younger brother did the illustrations. The book is called "Dora" and it details many of the great stories Dodie shared with us from a child's perspective. The book won a young author's award in my daughter Mary's school and is a family treasure for us to help us remember our beloved cousin. We will never forget this great lady who is truly one of the greatest people I have ever know. God Bless Cousin Dodie!!!! Love, the Hays and Heffernan families of Champaign and Chicago, IL>
