Survivors include her parents of Bowling Green; one brother Jacob Tipton of the home; maternal grandparents Billy and Carol Orf of Bowling Green, paternal grandparents Greg and Pam Tipton of Curryville, maternal great grandparents Bill and Shirley Orf of Bowling Green and Rosemary Touchette of Bellville, IL, paternal great grandparents Everett and Carley Lovell of Bowling Green and many aunts, uncles and cousins. She was preceded in death by great grandparents Elmer Touchette, Bill and Gerri Tipton; one great aunt Carrie Shy, three great uncles Joe, George and Elmer Touchette. Abigale celebrated many "firsts" in her short life. She celebrated her first Halloween, she got her first baby doll, she got her first "mommy and me" day. Where mommy painted her fingernails and toenails and put makeup on her princess. She got her first talk about boys with daddy, she was sung too for the first time by her big brother, she got her first Birthday celebration at 1 week old. But, most importantly she got to be held and loved by her mommy and daddy. Abigale had beautiful dark blue eyes and a grin that melted your heart. She had a head full of dark brown hair and a short stubby nose that you just had to touch. Abigale showed us how to love, how to have courage and fight. We were blessed with eight beautiful days with her here on earth and are now blessed with a guardian angel in heaven. Her strength and her will to live will never be forgotten. Serving as pallbearers will be Billy Orf and John Orf. Memorials may be made to the family of Abigale Sue Tipton c/o Mudd-Veach Funeral Home, 606 W. Main, Bowling Green, MO 63334.
