“ Wednesday's were the days I looked forward to as a kid. I always loved going to spend time with all the quilting ladies after school, especially my Grandma Korte and great aunts. All those years and even up to the last time I got to see Aunt Agnes, she held the sweetest smile and had a way of making you feel special and the only one in the room. It makes me happy to think of all of them together again chatting away as they did on those Wednesday afternoons.

“ I remember meeting Agnes when I was only 22 and was hired to be a teacher in Bowling Green. I could not find a place to live. She was so kind and helpful that year finding a place for me. She had a very kind heart.
