“ *Al & Mary Ellen bought their farm from my grandparents, Clark & Lona McDowell. The Seegers were so generous to give me things they found on the farm that belonged to my grandparents : a coal oil lantern & a wind up clock. One year Al told us it was time to tear down grandpas old smokehouse & he asked me if I'd like to keep a few boards. I asked him if I could have the whole thing (much to the dismay of my husband). Al & his friend, Junior , brought the smokehouse, piece by piece, to our home in Jefferson City. We built the smokehouse back at our lake. Our children & now our grandchildren have used their great grandfathers old smokehouse for sleepovers, Halloween parties, etc. Al and Mary Ellen will always have a special place in our hearts. “ Hello Girls,
It's been almost 60 years since we were neighbors and I still think about you guys everyday. Al and Marry Ellen were always so good to us and even though we practically lived there I never heard them say an unkind word to us. So sorry for the loss of Al and Mary Ellen but happy they are a part of my life.

“ I will truly miss Al. He was a dear friend, neighbor and heck of a card player. Our families spent so much time together and we have so many wonderful memories. Thank you for letting us be apart of your and Mary Ellen's life. We spent many days sledding and many night playing cards. We always enjoyed all the wonderful fruits and vegetables from Grandpa Seeger. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family during this time.

“ We will surely miss Mr. Seeger. We will always remember him driving down Mary Jo Road on his 3-wheeler and then on his side by side, sometimes with Mrs. Seeger, and his big black lab that used to run along the fence when we drove by. We were glad to be their neighbors. Our thoughts and prayers for your families.

“ Working at Al's house was a time I treasured, which always ended with me sitting at his kitchen table listening to his stories of farming back in the day. His genuine personality drew me in. He like so many of his generation lived a quiet, hard working, no frills lifestyle which in turn is what made our country so great. He was like a Grandfather to me.

“ Al and I worked together at Fletcher Equipment. Al was skilled at setting up machinery. He had an easy going personality. I remember how hard he worked helping move Fletcher Equipment from its Wentzville location to Troy. I never heard him complain. Great memories!
