

Aneva Rebecca Wiens

November 8, 1926 - May 15, 2023

Aneva Rebecca Wiens, 96, of Bowling Green, passed away Monday, May 15, 2023 at Country View Nursing Facility in Bowling Green.

Funeral services for Aneva will be Thursday, May 18, 2023 at 11:00 a.m. at Morning Star Fellowship Church in Bowling Green with Pastor Skip Merkle officiating. Burial will be in Concord Cemetery in Bowling Green. Visitation will be from 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. on Thursday at the church.

Aneva was born in Omaha, Nebraska to Oscar and Dolley (Shepherd) Sander. She was united in marriage to Jack Wiens on September 29, 1944 in Lakeview, Oregon. Jack preceded her in death on November 19, 1995.

Aneva grew up on Lakeview, Oregon until she married Jack. Following Jack's return from WWII, the couple moved to California. They had lived in the Bowling Green area since 1986.

Aneva was a member of the Morning Star Fellowship Church, where she was a door greeter and known as "The Prayer Warrior" and "the official Granny of the Church." Aneva liked to spend her time sewing, decorating houses, and working in interior design. She loved light houses, and had a very extensive collection. In 1986, Aneva went in with her daughter and son-in-law to form M & W Farms, where they raised beef cattle. She was very involved with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Aneva used to be a snowbird, spending the winters in Florida.

Aneva is survived by children, Jack Wiens, Jr. of Ashland, Oregon and Cheryl Mitchell (Ken) of Bowling Green; grandchildren: Stacey Wiens, Jeff Wiens, Carrie Mitchell, and Mark Mitchell (Jessica); seven great-grandchildren; 2 great-great-grandchildren; and sisters, Linea Johnson and Sandra Godlove, both of Ashland, Oregon.

Aneva was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; and three siblings.

Pallbearers will be Mark Mitchell, Dylan Collins, Ben Yoder, Dave Murray, Gabriel Bryant, Michael Bryant, and Elijah Bryant.

Memorials may be made to Concord Cemetery Association or Morning Star Fellowship Church.
