“ So very sorry for your loss. Anna was a very special lady. We were so very happy to have met her when she did all that work to organize the reunion of the Displaced Persons who came to Bowling Green so many years ago. It meant a lot to my husband to be able to revisit that area and rehash those days so many years ago. Some fond memories and some not but never the less a wonderful event. With sincere sympathy Joseph and Maureen Niescierenko ❤️

“ What a huge loss for your family and the community! My sympathies to the whole family. She talked non stop about her kids and grandkids. I am just so sad and upset about losing Anna. But, I am very glad we made our trip to Germany in 2019. We would not have been able to travel in 2020. I will miss her invaluable assistance with local history and personal genealogy. RIP dear friend.
