

Carolyn Jean Branstetter

November 20, 1937 - August 23, 2020

Carolyn (Robinson) Branstetter, age 82 of Bowling Green, passed away Sunday, August 23, 2020, at University Hospital in Columbia, Missouri. Cremation rites were preformed according to the families wishes by the Bibb-Veach Funeral Home in Bowling Green. A Memorial Service will be held at a later date.

Carolyn was born November 20, 1937 in Bowling Green, Missouri, the daughter of John Hurley and Nellie Robinson. Survivors include children Debbie Kirkpatrick of Bowling Green, Cheryl Sutton (Leon) of Bowling Green, Greg Branstetter (Kris) of Louisiana, and Melissa Dempsey (Randy) of Bowling Green; 11 grandchildren; and 22 great-grandchildren. Carolyn was an only child. She was preceded in death by her parents; husband Jack Branstetter; and special friend Bill Riley.

Carolyn grew up in Bowling Green and grew up in the Presbyterian Church. She worked as an independent babysitter for many years, and finished out her working years at Bear Hugs and Books Daycare. She enjoyed playing cards, watching reality TV, and being around family.

“ Dang, I'm so sorry to hear this. As a middle schooler growing up in Bowling Green her house was always open for a snack, drink or a bed to stay and it didn't matter what time of day or night it was...

My thoughts and prayers for Debbie, Cheryl, Greg, Melissa and the rest of the family.

“ When she was babysitting my daughter, Rachel, she came to Lisa & I and said are you feeding her baby food? We said yes, of course. Then she asked what type? Carrots, sweet potatoes, and so on? Well you might want to start feeding her some green beans & some items not orange, because she IS orange! Lol!! I laughed so hard!! Then a few years later, she went to work at the daycare Kidsville. She was the BEST!
