She was born in Bowling Green to Theodore Miller and Cecilia Lindeman Miller on September 5, 1916, the oldest of three children. She attended St. Clement Catholic School. Catherine worked at the garment factory until its closing then worked as a caregiver to “new” mothers with families, and later returned to the farm to assist the family. She is survived by her sister and brother-in-law, Agnes and Raymond Sellmeyer, Vinita, OK. She is survived by 7 nieces and nephews; Jim (Angie) Sellmeyer, Carolyn (Don) Marshall, Norma (Wes) Virden, David (Julie) Sellmeyer, Dorothy (Glenn) Harris, John (Julia) Sellmeyer, and Mary (Greg) Leonard along with 10 great-nieces and nephews. The family is grateful to her “special” cousin, Edna Brown for her constant love and her friends at her apartment complex. She was preceded in death by her parents and a brother, Paul Miller. Catherine enjoyed her nieces and nephews and family coming to visit during the summer. It became Christmas in June as she loved giving gifts. She also enjoyed making memories with them of pumping drinking water, eating homemade apple butter and feeding the chickens just to name a few. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial donations be made to St. Clement Building Fund or the St. Clement Cemetery c/o Mudd-Veach Funeral Home.
