“ I will remember Catherine as the girl who was always right there, jumping up to lend a helping hand ~ picking up a fussing little one and taking them out of church ~ always a smile, no job or chore too much for her. She was a true friend to those of her age group and that smile...that beautiful smile. Angelic it was...and I guess that is why she had to leave us so soon. She sought to be Our Lady's handmaid and now that she is close to Her, she will be more able to accomplish the duties of her mission. We will miss you, fair lady!! Please pray for us who have been left behind ~ My love to you and your grieving family!! Aunt Joyce

“ DE PROFUNDIS

*Every Sacrament
I could...
Immersed my soul
In graces good.*

*Every penance
That I uttered
In fear and trepidation Shuddered.*

*Every child
I birthed in pain
I offered Him
So souls would gain*

*And now my soul
In night won't cease
For you my prayers...
De Profundis.*

I know she is a Saint in Heaven. God bless you all and all our prayers, forever! The Flanerys
