

Clarence Walter Gray

July 15, 1957 - May 22, 2021

Clarence Walter Gray, 63, of Eolia passed away May 22, 2021 at his home. Cremation rites are under the direction of Bibb-Veach Funeral Home & Crematory of Bowling Green.

Clarence was born July 15, 1957 in Louisiana, Missouri to William Alonzo and Dorothy Marie Shepherd Gray.

Clarence grew up in New Hartford and graduated Bowling Green High School with the class of 1975. He was raised Baptist, and was a believer in Christ. He had been employed with Magruder Limestone, the local sawmill, Stark Bros. Nurseries, Arrow Industries, and other industries in the area. Clarence enjoyed hunting, fishing, and gardening; but his favorite pastime was spending time with his nieces and nephews.

Clarence is survived by three sisters: Pat McCorkle (Rocky) of Palmetto, Florida, Linda Leopold of Eolia, and Gina Epperson of Troy; an aunt, Maxine Gray; along with nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his parents; brother, Orval Gray; sister, Shelly Fongemie; and a half-sister, Mary Gray.

Memorials may be made to Ashley Cemetery.
