“ I remember Cletus being a very active member of St. Joseph's. After moving to Texas in 1995, whenever I was back in Louisiana for a visit and would attend mass at St. Joseph's, Cletus remembered me and always had a warm greeting for me. My condolences to his family. Ann Woods

I think of Cletus as a good friend. He was devoted to his faith. I would usually sit in front of him in church and would always get a tap on my shoulder from him. Bit could he belt out those hymns. Maybe not in tune, but you could sure here him. I admired him for singing while others kept their mouths shut. Made me Sind along right with him, probably out of tune right along with him. I've missed him in church since his illness and all this difficult year. Cletus will be noticeably missed. Sending prayers, love, and hugs to the entire family.
