

Debora Sue Holcumbrink

January 26, 2014

Funeral Wednesday January 29, 2014 10:00 am Curryville Baptist Church
Visitation Tuesday January 28, 2014 4:00 pm - 7:00 pm Mudd-Veach Funeral Home (Bowling Green)
Debora Sue Holcumbrink, 57, of Vandalia passed away January 26, 2014 at her home. Funeral services will be 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, January 29, 2014 at the Curryville Baptist Church with Rev. Jerry Gamm officiating. Burial will be in the Curryville Cemetery. Visitation will be 4:00-7:00 p.m., Tuesday, January 28, 2014 at the Mudd-Veach Funeral Home in Bowling Green. Debora was born February 17, 1956 in Monmouth, IL the daughter of Frank Lee and Bonnie Johnson Holcumbrink of Frankford. They survive. Other survivors include three sister's Barbara Hagemeister and husband Ron of Republic, Brenda Haddock and husband Boyd of Bowling Green, and Kathy Crawford and fiancée Dale Haas of Jefferson City; nieces and nephews Abi Hagemeister, Brian Crawford, Kevin Crawford and Kaitlin Crawford. Debora grew up in Frankford, attended Frankford elementary and graduated from Bowling Green High School the class of 1975. After graduation she moved to Vandalia. She worked as a medical tech for Tri-County Care Center in Vandalia. Debora enjoyed needle work, was devoted in taking care of her parents in whatever way she was needed and was a wonderful daughter and sister. She also loved her dog "Queenie." Memorials may be made to Curryville Baptist Church.