

Deborah Kay Schulz

January 21, 1952 - October 2, 2021

Deborah Kay (Carr) Schulz, 69, of Bowling Green, passed away Saturday, October 2, 2021 at St. Luke Hospital in Chesterfield, Missouri. Her wishes were to be cremated.

Debby was born January 21, 1952 to John Ed Carr and Willa Mae Baker Carr of Bowling Green, Missouri. She was united in marriage to Michael Schulz on March 27, 1989. He preceded her in death on January 3, 2020.

Debby was also preceded in death by her father; mother-in-law and father-in-law, Sam and Helen Schulz; brother-in-law, David Sisson; and a step-daughter, Rachel of Minnesota.

She is survived by her mother; one sister, Phyllis Sisson; a niece, Mitzi McCormick (Derrick Reading), whom she cherished; a great-niece, LaCosta Hays; a great nephew, Joseph McCormick; 2 great-great nieces, Elisabeth and Lillie Hays; a great-great nephew, Leland Hays, whom she thought of as her own and spoiled often; and 2 step-grandsons, Dillon and Brandon Mathias of Minnesota.

Debby was a graduate of Bowling Green High School. Mike and Debby have resided in Lake Crystal, Minnesota and Vandalia, Missouri; finally settling in rural Bowling Green. She had been employed at Wil-Lo Café, Bankhead's Chocolates, Moon Winks Café, sold combined insurance, Moore-Pike Nursing Home, and later drove a tractor-trailer truck.

Debby's hobbies included cooking, flower gardening, and crafting, as her health allowed.

She will be deeply missed by her family and friends; along with three dear friends: Lorena Perkins, and Claudia and Tom Flamm.

A Memorial Service will be held at a later date.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss.😞😞 I have known Debbie for almost 40 years. She babysat my brother when he was little. I would go to her house in the summer when my brother did. She would take us to the creek swimming. And her house is where I met one of my besties Ann McCallister Cannon. Had a lot of good memories going to Debbie's. She was a very sweet person & she will be deeply missed.❤️❤�
