

Dennis Ray Lineberry

June 1, 1957 - March 22, 2024

Dennis R. Lineberry, 66, passed away after a long struggle with various health issues, on Friday, March 22, 2024 at his home in Foristell, Missouri.

Dennis was born on June 1, 1957 in St. Louis, Missouri to the late John L. and Vauda "Lee" Lineberry.

After graduating from Maplewood School District, Dennis worked in the trucking industry for more than 20 years, until health issues forced him into retirement.

His passion was spending time with his grandchildren. He was extremely skilled in woodworking, welding, and steel working, creating amazing works of art. In his earlier years, he was an avid woodsman; you would find him outdoors, he loved fishing and hunting. One of his favorite pastimes was watching the St. Louis Cardinals and old westerns.

Dennis was preceded in death by his parents; older brother, John L. Lineberry, Jr.; his voice, his left leg, and several fingers and toes.

Surviving is one son, Johnathon James Lineberry of Foristell, Missouri; sister, Tammy (Mark) Schlichtemier of Troy, Missouri; brother, Ronnie Lineberry of Greenville, Missouri; grandchildren: Landon, James, Layla, and Xander; four nieces and two nephews.

There will be a graveside service on Wednesday, March 27, 2024 at New Liberty Cemetery, Corso, Missouri at 1:00 pm.

Pallbearers will be Johnathan Lineberry, Jayce Kelling, Brian Derry, Brody Kelling, and Ronnie Lineberry.

Memorials may be made to the Donor's Choice.

Cemetery Details

New Liberty Cemetery

Corso, MO

Previous Events

Graveside Services

MAR 27. 1:00 PM (CT)

New Liberty Cemetery
Corso, MO

Tribute Wall

AC

“ So sorry to hear of Dennis loss. When we were high school age, we grew up 2 miles apart near Corso Missouri. Knew his aunt and uncle and went to school with his brother Jr.

Alice Lyons Coose

---

Alice Coose - March 26, 2024 at 10:27 AM