“ I grew up as a neighbor and an adopted neice of Aunt Doris. I was part of the fun when her neices, Elaine, Gail, Kathy, & Jean came to visit. We had coffee in pretty cups, raisin toast, & link sausages. We played alot with horse figurines. She took me to Sunday school and church. I had my first job sanding on the Mark Twain busts sold at the museum. She wore heels all the time. Had a old jalopy that was cool and a grape arbor in her back yard. Those p"s and v's paid off! Good memories! Such a special lady.

“ Visited with this sweet lady several times at the burial site of her late husband, in the same area as the large Cruikshank memorial at the highest point of Riverside Cemetery. Years ago I would go there to practice my horn and encountered her when she was visiting Mr. Riedel's gravesite. Fond memories of this wonderful lady and praying for peace and comfort for her family and friends. Alan Embree

“ I met Mrs. Riedel once a few years ago at Riverside Cemetery. True Christians never have to tell someone that they are Christians and Mrs. Riedel was one of the few, you just knew she was a good Christian. I was amazed at how spry she was for her age and asked what her secret was for living so long and being able to still get out and drive herself. She said she never had a prescription for anything, never took a drink and never smoked a cigarette. What a lovely lady she was to talk to and I would have loved to have talked to her again. So inspiring and full of life. Bless her heart, I loved her after the one and only meeting, feels like I knew her all my life. Thank you Mrs. Riedel for helping me to see life from a different angle than I had before that chance meeting. You made a difference in me. My condolences to all of her friends and family. Your loss is truly a great loss. God be with you.

“ I grew up in Fifth Street Baptist Church and cannot remember NOT knowing Doris. She truly had the heart of Jesus and radiated His love in all her interactions with others, whether at church, at the store, or in her business dealings (we bought our house in Hannibal through her). Our prayers are for you to find peace and comfort in knowing she is resting in Jesus' arms.

“ I met this dear lady through my Thursday visits to the nursing home. She was such a joy to visit with and she loved to sing. We always had our special time of talking about how she was doing, and her answer was, "Well I'm still here". My reply was always how glad I was and to let her know how special to me she was and that I loved her. I'll miss her, but am so happy to know where she is and she is singing with her sweet voice. So very sorry for your loss. For His Glory, Joyce Long
