“ I grew up visiting Eddie and his brothers on the Stone family farm. Aunt Alta and Uncle Stoney raised him but his parents were there as were Grandpa and Grandma Stone. Eddie was like little when I first stayed at the farm. He was a good boy. He was kind. In 1974 he had He laid a kitchen floor for me and was so meticulous in his work. I loved him dearly.q

In the 80s we visited with our teenagers. Our son "jammed" with them on the concrete slab outside the house. Our son stayed for a few days on the farm hanging with Eddie. He had the best times. Eddie, you were loved! I am sorry you had to leave but in Jess, Heidi and Ryan you left a legacy. Kiss aunt and uncle for me. May you play on Heaven's band!
