“ Liz and I were always proud of our adoption status, we always felt we picked the best parents. Our years wrapping Christmas gifts at Pultz's men's store was so much fun, became a big part of Christmas, and a wonderful friendship. Many years of bridge and sharing made life special because of Liz and her funny sense of humor, and giggle. She was a very special friend, God bless you friend of years gone by. Carolyn Peyton

“ *I met Liz when I was working at the BGHS. We started out as friends and stayed friends forever. Us girls (secretaries) would always go shopping or out for a good time and we did have a blast. Many memories were made those evenings. We had good times and bad ones but we had each other to talk to and it always made us feel so much better. We will truly miss Liz and especially her beautiful smile!!!!!! Bill, Sharon. Linda, Jackie and little Bill and families you are all in my thoughts and prayers. God Bless each and everyone of you.
