“ Even though I was one of the younger ones, I too, remember Ivo lighting up the room and always made you feel like you were as close as anyone could be, even though we pretty much just saw each other on Christmas Eve at Granma Roberts' house (at least that I remember). Good Man, Ivo. Jerry

“ Listening to Ivo and all the brothers talk about the Cardinals is one of my fondest childhood memories. I swear they were happiest when the Cardinals were losing and there was more to complain about. It was always a special time when Ivo and his family came to visit; we will miss him so much. Love to all of you.

“ Loving thoughts to Aunt Alta and cousins Ivo, Yvonne, Mark, Keith and Angie. Your wonderful, outrageously funny husband and father was also a great and loving uncle. I will miss Uncle Ivo ever so much. Cousin Marilyn

“ That laugh of Ivo's is burned into my memory bank as is his love of the Cardinals, his story about teeth impressions made at a school of Orthodontics, and stories about him playing Santa Claus for the nieces and nephews.

He will be fondly missed by many.
