“ Gloria Mae was a very favorite first cousin to the Edwards children. In our childhood days she would come to the farm at Clarence, Missouri and spend lots of days playing, swimming, roaming the fields, riding horses, playing in the creek- one time she cut her foot on a rock in the creek and came to the house trailing blood. The hayloft was another place of fun, playing board games and sitting around laughing and visiting. She was always a lot of fun. In her adult life she loved to call Aunt Mary Gertrude and Uncle Omer. We loved her and will miss her.
