She lived in Bowling Green until her health declined, at which point she moved to Mississippi so her daughter could assist her.

Imogene enjoyed fishing, attending motorcycle shows, and playing baseball. Her favorite way to pass the time was spending time with her family.

“ Our deepest condolences, for the loss of Imogene. I remember when she would walk up the street and we would go to school together. Later, she became our neighbor. She has made it, out of this cruel world. It's always hard to lose a loved one but take solace knowing she's now in the arms of Jesus. God will get you through this great loss.
