Jeanne was born on August 10, 1930 in Ralls County, Missouri to Florence Myers Weldy and Owen Y. Weldy who preceded her in death. Sisson, Stepsisters; Florine and Ruth, Grandson; Jenson Fugate and Son in Law; Roger Ahrens. Jeanne loved music and dancing the 'two-step' to her favorite Big Bands. She had many fond memories playing the oboe in the Bowling Green High School band. She was joined in marriage to James W. Hallows in 1953.

James and Jeanne have four surviving children; David W. Hallows, Diane M. Ahrens, James R. Hallows and Tina M. Powell (Gordon). Jeanne worked most of her life on the farm she and her husband James built from the ground up. She was an animal lover but her most favorite was birds and her Kitty. Jeanne always had a smile and open arms for everyone that crossed her path. In addition to her children, she baby sat for neighbors and her grandchildren. Later she was employed at the Senate Bill 40 where she was able to work doing what she loved most; caring for others. Her quick wit and sense of humor were astounding even in her latest years. Jeanne was an amazing cook and showed her love through cooking. She was always kind, generous and compassionate. Although we will miss her dearly, Heaven has gained the sweetest Angel.

“ Sending love and prayers for all your family from Don & Vicki Gerding and Margaret Adams. I remember attending Jeanne & James' wedding. I was a child and I thought she was the most beautiful woman I had ever seen. In the many years since then I grew to know her as a beautiful woman who had a kind and generous heart and a beautiful soul. We will all miss her terribly, but our loss is a gain in heaven.
