

Ina Mae Jennings

December 4, 1924 - September 14, 2015

Ina Mae (Weldy) Jennings, of Frankford, MO, has joined her Heavenly Father on Monday, September 14, 2015 at the age of 90. Cremation rites are being conducted by the Bibb-Veach Funeral Home in Bowling Green.

Ina Mae was born on December 4th, 1924 in Pike County, MO to Osie and Eldena Weldy. She married Glen Austin Jennings on December 25th, 1941 and together they raised four children. He preceded her in death August 9, 1989.

Survivors include children Roberta Culverwell and Betty Ford; brother, Wayne Weldy (Rose); grand-children Annette Dunckley (Bob), Rodney Culverwell (Margaret), Carrie Freese (Travis), and Sarah Jennings (Jarin); great-grand-children, Chandra Henderson (Austin), Kammi Culverwell, Glen Jennings, Kaden and Mikhela Scovil, Jack Hockins/Freese, and Levi Freese; great-great-grand-children Aria, Dante, Daelynn, Dayanna, and Shaylynn.

She is preceded in death by her parents, husband, daughter Marjorie, son Richard, sisters Helen (Denver) Jennings and Alta (Reavis) Kirtlink, and her son-in-law Gerald Culverwell.

Honoring Ina Mae's wishes, there will be no services held, but rather, those who have been touched by her love and friendship are encouraged to take a moment to reflect on their happy memories of Ina Mae.

The family is grateful for the condolences, but declines flowers and donations.

“ I was a High School friend of Ina Mae and Glen’s son Richard. We went to Palisade High School together our Jr. and Sr. Year. Richard was my best friend and I have only recently learned of the passing of his mother Ina Mae. I have great memories of Ina Mae and Glen and the whole family. They were a big part of my life that I will always remember.
