“ My handsome cousin. I'm 10 years younger & always loved to see him in military uniform when he'd come home on Leave. Fast forwarding to our married years, I met his wife at Emmanuel Baptist (while they were still In the old school building) who led me thru The Romans Road to salvation in Jesus. She became my best friend 40 plus years ago, but always kidded Jackie that had I known she was married to my cousin, I'd have to reconsider. We had lotsa laughs many times with that. He was always jovial as well as strong willed. Always blessed his food & gave thanks for the hands that prepared it. Still fast forward—
Being in Houston, Tx now & getting back to see them when time allowed, I always left with no goodbyes, but "If I don't see ya' here, I'll see ya' There"! Oh what a reunion that will be! I almost made an Astro out of the Cardinal, He'd call me when they were playing & loved Altuve. I will miss our calls during those games! And him!
