

Joan Marjorie Nehring

January 13, 1934 - July 28, 2020

Joan Marjorie Nehring passed away Tuesday, July 28, 2020.

Visitation will be held Thursday, July 30, 2020 from 4:00 - 6:00 p.m. at Bibb-Veach Funeral Home in Bowling Green.

A full obituary will follow.

Joan Marjorie (Stinn) Nehring, 86, of Bowling Green, Missouri, formally Grandview, Missouri, passed away Tuesday, July 28, 2020.

Joan was born January 13, 1934 in Stuart, Iowa, to Edward Leo Stinn and Bertha G. Kronfuss. She graduated from St. Joseph Academy in Des Moines, Iowa, in 1952. She was one of nine children: Hedy McQuade (deceased), Vernon Stinn (deceased), Sr. Carmelita Stinn, Marita Duggan (deceased), Edward Stinn Jr. (deceased), Angela Jacobs, Jerry Stinn (deceased), and Dennis Stinn.

Joan married the love of her life, Marvin Charles Nehring in April 1967. Together they resided in Grandview, Missouri until Marvin passed away on January, 25 1977. She is survived by her children Diane LeValley, Jean (Sam) Lombardo, Thea (Tom) Weinandt, Philip (Rebecca) Nehring and Theresa (Boyd) Shotton. Her grandchildren, Kirk (Angela) LeValley, Michele (John)

Skowronski, Sheri (Rick) Nichols, Kristy (Chad) Surratt, Brad Sullins, Abby (Preston) Johnson, T.J. (Katie) Weinandt, Zach (Carlie) Weinandt, Dalton Nehring, Rachel Nehring, Madelyn Shotton and Cale Shotton; 17 great-grandchildren, and 7 great-great grandchildren.

Her career began after high school working for the telephone company until she got married. Next, Joan worked for Zarda Dairy Ice Cream while raising her family. Later, she worked for Hush Puppy Shoes and in retirement, part-time at Klahn Accounting as a receptionist, Bank Midwest serving popcorn and as a crossing guard for the Meadowmere Elementary School.

Joan was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Marvin, four of her siblings and great-grandson Jacob Skowronski.

Joan was loved by many, especially her nieces, nephews and numerous friends. She enjoyed traveling, spending time with family, Frank Sinatra and Bourbon & Seven and anything with polk-a-dots. She was very active in her church in Grandview, volunteering with the altar rosary, church sacristan, eucharist minister, and visiting the elderly. Joan always made time to pray and talk on the phone. She would often say "You can call me anything, but don't call me too late to eat or drink!"

Visitation will be held July 30 from 4-6 p.m. at Bibb-Veach Funeral Home in Bowling Green, Missouri. A second visitation at Coronation of Our Lady Catholic Church in Grandview, Missouri on August 4 at 10 a.m., followed with the rosary and funeral. She will be laid to rest next to her love Marvin at the Mt. Olivet Catholic Cemetery in Raytown, MO.

Memorials may be directed to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

My good friend JoAnn was the truest friend anyone could have. Always smiling, Happy and fun-loving! We met at "Ma Bell" (Telephone Co.) and had been good friends ever since.

I was so sorry and shocked to see her go so quickly as I'm sure we all were!

She was very devoted to her large family and her faith in the good Lord was very apparent! She was a very beautiful Soul!

I want to extend my Condolences and deepest Sympathy to her entire family and know she will be missed very dearly by all of her family and friends!!

Sincerely, Luanne Clark
