I was scrolling along and saw this. Now, I am in tears. I went to school with John, but my best memories are of the times he hung out at my dad's (Gordon Shepherd) shop. We shared stories and lots of laughter. I will never forget him. Your entire family has my condolences.

“ I'm so sad to hear of Johnny's passing. I have wonderful memories growing up together! As children, we always thought it was so cool for me to be born on November 2 and Johnny on November 22! What a wonderful human being! Even though we didn't spend much of our adult life together, I will still truly miss seeing him at family events. Rest in peace!

“ This is never going to seem real.... John's squinty eyed smiles and laughs were contagious.. and his hugs were the best! He fought a hard fight... yet still remained as positive as possible.. even a few weeks ago when I visited him in the hospital.... through all the pain and suffering he's endured. Taken far too soon from those who loved him. Prayers for peace and comfort for his family... and friends. Forever in our hearts....

So saddened to hear of John's passing. I went to visit him a few weeks ago in the hospital in Columbia and his words were "cancer sucks". Gone way too soon. I know your brother Jim and your mom met you at Heaven's door.
