“ We had some great times at the Lake of the Ozarks back when we were all very young. I did enjoy shooting sporting clays with him and his buds. Downed a few beers along the way. He was always so cordial and level headed.

Lynn, Zennie and I feel so terrible about your family's loss of this great man. To all the rest of the brothers and sisters you have all been like family to us. May God bless this very nice and hard working man, for he has surely earned his way into heaven. Larry and Zenaida Cole
