“ The day I met Joe in the Break Room at Lunch, we immediately began joking, and insulting each other, from across the room, over all the other people eating.
After a while, he pointed across the room at me and said, in his loud, boisterous voice, WE ARE GONNA BE GREAT FRIENDS! He had decided, and that was that. we were.
It's BECAUSE of Joe, that Ashley and I have a little rescued kitten named Sweet Pea. He named her, when he found her, abandoned. He and Anissa rescued her and let her join our world.
THAT was Joe in a nutshell. ALWAYS making everyone's lives better.
MUCH BETTER. We already miss you so much, Joey!

“ I am so sorry to hear of Joe's passing. I was just thinking of him on his birthday Wednesday, and now to learn this today is heartbreaking. My deepest sympathies to his wife, the Harters and all his family, and all who were touched by Joe throughout his (much too short) life. May he rest in peace.

“ Joe had such a contagious laughter that we all loved. His sense of humor was one of a kind. Joe will be missed. We had long conversations in Walmart and at the beauty shop. Joe had a passion for the things he would be involved in and always had a great way of sharing them with others! I always looked forward to seeing Joes big Smile. Hugs and prayers for everyone family, friends and to the critters he dearly loved.

“ I can still picture the day we met in 1995. My first thought was "I don't like this guy", but he grew on me, and we became best friends. When he came back from Sweden, he stayed with us for a few months and became our "son", even though he was only three years younger. These past few days have reminded me how much he meant to me, so many things remind me of memories of my best friend. I don't think he realized how many lives he touched and the world is worse off without Joe in it. My life was greatly enriched having him in it and I miss him and will cherish our memories forever.

“ We are so thankful for Joe's friendship. He lit up every room he came into, he was so unique, so funny, we love him for being a true friend, always enterprising and quick to crack a joke. We will miss the talks about all things we agree on (conservatism), bees, family. He lives on in our hearts and we have so many memories we will treasure forever. See you on the other side Joe!

“ Joe was definitely bigger than life. I remember the first time we met and the giant hug he gave me and said "welcome to the family", his smile was always so welcoming and warm. He will be deeply missed, and our hearts ache for you all. He was an amazing man, and he left behind so many fond memories.

We love you all very much, we are so deeply sorry for your loss.
