

Joyce N. Johnson

January 16, 1944 - October 1, 2019

Joyce N. Johnson, 75, of Hannibal, formerly of Frankford, passed away October 1, 2019 at Maple Lawn Nursing Home in Palmyra, Missouri.

A Celebration of Life will be held Friday, October 4, at 4:00 p.m. at the Frankford Christian Church in Frankford, Missouri. A Celebration Gathering will be held immediately following.

Mrs. Johnson was born January 16, 1944 in Campbell, Missouri to Roy and Lillian Mae Speaks Branham. She was united in marriage to James Edward "Slim" Johnson on November 11, 1962. He preceded her in death.

Joyce worked at Bobby Brooks in Vandalia and also Bridal Originals in Bowling Green. She later worked at, and retired from, Dura Automotive in Hannibal. She enjoyed reading, cooking, and music. She was especially known for her pecan pie and peanut butter fudge. Joyce enjoyed watching TV, especially Westerns and cooking shows.

Mrs. Johnson is survived by a daughter, Jennifer Johnson of Hannibal, a brother Gary Branham of Louisiana, and a sister Gail Martin of Rison, Arkansas. She was especially close to her Kent family relatives. Along with her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by a sister Barbara Harris and a sister-in-law, Barbara K. Branham.

Donations may be made to the donor's choice or the Frankford Christian Church.
