

Larry Boyce

January 29, 2011

Larry Boyce age 92 of Bowling Green formerly of Ferguson passed away at the Moore-Pike Nursing Home in Bowling Green. Private family military graveside services will be held at Jefferson Barracks National Cemetery in St. Louis. He was born March 29, 1918 in St. Louis, the son of Arthur John and Anna Seth Boyce. On August 5, 1948 in Springdale, AR, he married Bernice Pohlman. She survives. Also surviving are two daughters Helen Moellering of Bowling Green; Kathy Harris and husband Jim of St. Charles; five grandchildren Amy Davis, Ron Moellering, Andrea Keachie, Emily Mitchell and Molly Barkley; six great grandchildren and one sister Marion Fields of Seattle, WA. He is preceded in death by his parents, two sisters Margaret Caldwell and Nell Mades and three brothers Walter Boyce, Pete Boyce and Bill Boyce. He was raised in Ferguson then served in the United States Army during WWII. He returned to Ferguson and worked and managed the A. J. Boyce Plumbing. He moved to St. Charles for five years before moving to Moore-Pike Nursing Home in Bowling Green three years ago. He and his wife have owned a farm in rural Bowling Green since 1961 where he enjoyed farming, hunting and the country life. Memorials may be made to Alzheimer's Association.