“ Nan was a lady who cared about people and church. I knew her best when they lived in bg. She loved music and played a big part in selecting kuwai piano at bg pres church. She also offered much support to the choir especially when wanda was choir director. A special spark of joy was always seen when there was a mention of her grandson and family. She will be missed. Prayers to all her family. Colleen

“ Nan was a huge part of my high school life as I hung out for countless hours with my best pal, Lisa, at the Galloway home. She was generous with a terrific sense of humor, but she didn't put up with any crap! She welcomed our small gang of friends on Fridays and Saturdays, keeping us well-fed with her cookies.

I loved her. And though I only saw her a few times these past years, I will miss her.

Much love to Bob and Lisa during this time. I will be thinking of you.
