Living most of his life on the West side of the state of Missouri, Ed spent his working years as a machinist, under contracts with the Department of Energy. Ed proudly served in the United States Army during the tail end of WWII and spent time in Germany. Being a strong man of faith, Ed was a member of Drexel Baptist Church where he filled many roles with the church and currently attended Eolia Baptist Church.

At a young age, Ed had a passion for music. In High School he played drums in a band with his best friend. He learned to play piano by ear and enjoyed the harmonica. Ed loved old church hymns and Christian music. This past Christmas, at the age of 93, Ed delivered a musical special for his church at Eolia Baptist Church.

Ed loved tinkering and working on old cars, he was currently working on a red and white 1952 Nash Metropolitan. He had a sweet tooth and enjoyed drinking Dr. Pepper. Although he had moved to Whiteside and was in the heart of Cardinal Nation, Ed's heart bled Kansas City Royals blue, making sure that upon his move to the East side of the state that he could still watch in Royals play ball.

Above all, his relationship with the Lord, his church and his family were the most important things in his life. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him.
