“ I will always remember Lois! No sweeter person there could be! Her Beautiful smile would always light up and even if you were feeling blue she had a way about her that made you feel good about life itself. Always and encourager to us older adults and when my children were young, waiting to see a Dr., she would always make them smile and unafraid . She will definitely be missed! My condolences to all her family!

“ I personally don't know Lois, but I feel like I do because of all the wonderful things my sister Cindy(Lois daughter in law) has told me about her and has kept me updated on her health the past few weeks. I've mostly heard about how much she loved the Lord and she lived her faith. My heart goes out to the whole family as you all grieve her loss and I'm sure she'll missed deeply. One day I'll get to meet her in Heaven and I do look forward to that.

*Greg & Cindy, I'm sorry to hear of your loss. It does make me smile, though, to see the name Lois ... it was my mother's name, too! Not very common even in their generation, and virtually unheard of nowadays.
Peace.
