“ I'll always miss sleepovers at my grandma lorrys house. playing with toys all day until i got tired, so we would go to the couch and she would watch horror movies with me. then we would go to her bedroom and she'd brush my hair and we would lay down and she'd turn on a kids show and i'd lay my head on her stomach until she fell asleep, then i'd steal drinks from her pepsi and turn on family guy or the cleveland brown show and fall asleep. then i'd wake up to uncle robert waking me up or grandma telling me pancakes were ready. her pancakes were amazing. then id watch tv until my mom picked me up, we'd get mcdonald's from the one right by her house and id beg to go back. i'll forever miss my grandma lorry . 💙

“ I'll never forget Grandma's visits to our house in O'Fallon. She brought me a shirt from the zoo one year that you could color, it meant the world to me. She always came with her box of Pepsi lol. It became one of my biggest cravings during my last pregnancy & I think of her every time I crack one open. A funny memory I'll never forget was at my Aunt's vow renewal when her teeth came out onto the floor lol. Instead of being embarrassed, we all had a good laugh. She always told me how much she loved me & I felt it. I always wanted to buy her a new heel that we found her out and about shopping & I'll always think of her too when I see one. It's been 6 years since I've been home & I know my next visit won't be the same without my Aunt or Grandma there to greet me.💔 I'll always carry them in my heart though. Always. I love you Grandma Lorry & I wish I could have told you in person just one more time.
