

LuLu Lee Clark

April 25, 2013

Funeral Monday April 29, 2013 11:00 am Mudd-Veach Funeral Home (Bowling Green) Visitation Sunday April 28, 2013 4:00-7:00 pm Mudd-Veach Funeral Home (Bowling Green) Lulu Lee Clark, 89, of Bowling Green, passed away Thursday, April 25, 2013 at the Moore Pike Nursing Home in Bowling Green. Funeral services are being held at 11:00 am Monday April 29, 2013 at the Mudd-Veach Funeral Home in Bowling Green with Lay Pastor Chris Gamm officiating. Burial will be at the Antioch Cemetery. Visitation will be from 4:00- 7:00 pm, Sunday, April 28, 2013 at the funeral home. Lulu was born November 8, 1923 in Lincoln County the daughter of Leonard Emmett and Martha Edith Achor Colbert. On August 14, 1948 in Hannibal she married Henry Everly Clark. He survives. Other survivors include two daughters Myrna Trower and husband Wilby, and Karen Cover and husband Joe all of Bowling Green; four grandchildren Teresa Reynolds and husband Corey, Billy Cover and wife Ginna, Roy Cover and Missy Smith, and Jeff Trower and wife Kristy; and eight Great Grandchildren. Mrs. Clark was preceded in death by her parents and one brother Curtis Colbert. Mrs. Clark was born and raised in Rural Lincoln County until marriage and then she lived in rural Pike county. She worked at Bridal Originals in Bowling Green then at the Hiles Shoe Store, Bennets Jewelry and finally the Village Gift Shop before retiring. She was a Deacon and Elder at Antioch Church where she served as Treasurer for over ten years. Lulu also taught Sunday School and worked to start Jam Pac Youth Organization. She loved sewing, reading, her family and country music shows. Serving as pallbearers will be Billy Cover, Roy Cover, Jeff Trower, Kyle Brewster and Herbert Colbert and Everly Colbert. Memorials may be made to Antioch Presbyterian Church.