

Mahlon Eugene Coose

January 31, 1947 - September 8, 2022

Mahlon Eugene Coose, 75, of Jacksonville, Florida, formerly of Eolia, passed away Thursday, September 8, 2022 at his home.

Private funeral services for Mahlon will be held at Bibb-Veach Funeral Homes & Crematory in Bowling Green with Pastor Cole Branstetter and Pastor Bill Carlin officiating. Burial will be in the Eolia Cemetery.

Mahlon was born January 31, 1947 in Eolia, Missouri to Alonzo and Helen Brown Coose. They preceded him in death.

Also preceding Mahlon in death are his grandparents; and brother, Barry Coose.

Mahlon is survived by siblings: Betty Sue Martin of Eolia, Alonzo Coose Jr. (Carol) of Fairfax Station, Virginia, Sharon Carlin (Bill) of Bowling Green, and Judy Branstetter (Chuck) of Bowling Green; special friend, Osborn (Rusty) McDonald; many nieces, nephews, and cousins; and special caregivers, Naomi Goodman, Joycelyn Glover, and Kim Williams.

Mahlon grew up in Eolia and graduated Clopton High School in 1965. He was drafted into the United States Army during the Vietnam Era, and was honorably discharged in 1969 when his father passed away, enabling him to assist his mother. After being discharged, Mahlon attended UMSL in St. Louis. He then went to work with Union Pacific (Missouri Pacific), which led him to Florida. Mahlon later left Union Pacific (Missouri Pacific) to begin his own business as an interior decorator in Florida. He was well-known for his work in the Florida area, and was highly sought after for his skills. Mahlon enjoyed poetry and reading in his spare time. He was a collector of antiques. He loved the outdoors, and especially enjoyed going to his cabin in North Carolina on Cold Mountain. He had several pets that he loved dearly.

Pallbearers will be Daniel Boyer, Craig Carroll, Corey Carroll, Aaron Martin, Clint Courtney, and Brad Carlin.

Memorials may be made to St. Jude's Children's Hospital.
