

Margaret Alice Grothaus

August 3, 1931 - November 5, 2022

Margaret Alice Grothaus, 91, of Bowling Green passed away Saturday, November 5, 2022 at Parkside Manor in Bowling Green.

A Memorial Mass will be held Friday, November 25th, 2022 at 10:00 a.m. at St. Clement Catholic Church with Fr. Henry Ussher officiating. A Celebration of Life will be held immediately following at Do North Farms in Curryville.

Margaret was born August 8, 1931 in Trenton, New Jersey to John D. Young and Margaret A. (Shaw) Young. She was united in marriage to Joseph Grothaus on May 29, 1954. He preceded her in death on November 5, 1993.

Also preceding Margaret in death were her parents; and a brother, Sandy Young.

Surviving are daughters, Shawn (Bob) Dyck of Bowling Green, and Robie (Mel) Orf of Bowling Green; nephew, Joey Kleene of Jefferson City; and brother-in-law, Bob Grothaus of Palatka, Florida.

Margaret grew up in Harvey, Illinois; a suburb of Chicago. Upon graduation, Margaret went to work. After working at a couple of different banks, Margaret went to work at US Steel. It was there she met Joseph. In 1958, the couple began their family. Margaret became a stay-at-home mom. After the girls were out of school, Margaret rejoined the workforce and went to work at the Thorton Community College bookstore. She was employed at the bookstore until 1979 when the family moved to Alabama. Margaret spent the next 17 years employed at Bookland in Birmingham, Alabama. In 1999, Margaret retired and moved to Bowling Green to be closer to Robie.
