“ I have many fond memories of Ralph and Marion--my sister Libby and I grew up next door and spent many hours visiting in their kitchen and playing with the cats. Marion was a good friend to my parents, Shirley and Bob Craft, and was always there for us when my mother was hospitalized. I had a long visit with her last fall and enjoyed reminiscing about growing up next door. She was a woman of great energy and compassion, and always spoke fondly of her family. My sincerest condolences--Mary Jane Craft Holt
