“ Marvin was a gentle soul and a gentleman and he was very dear to my husband (who is in heaven with him talking old cars and gas pumps) and me. He was deeply loved (and always will be) by us all and his family knew he loved all of them more than anything in his life. He always made us feel so at home when we visited and we were family. Marvin will be missed by us all. Peace and love to each of the family. Aunt Becky Easley, Anna, Ben, Jon and Zack.

“ Marvin was a wonderful man. I've never known such a man to show his love for his family the way he did. You could tell by the love in his face when he talked to his children when he spoke of them and his grandchildren, there was never any doubt he would do whatever he could to make their lives the best they could be. He sacrificed his health for our country and I am extremely grateful to him and his family for his sacrifice. Marvin, you will be greatly missed by those closest to you, but you have given them lasting memories to help them carry on until you meet again. Rest in peace, Marvin. Lorena and the family, may you find peace knowing his suffering is no more and he awaits you in heaven. Thinking and praying for each one of you.
