“ *Glenda and family,
I am so sorry to hear about Mike. I have so many memories of his wit, his generosity (my kids still talk about him giving them candy from the store!) and whenever I needed a break, walking over and having a cold one with him. He will truly be missed!*

“ I can't count the number of times your quick wit cracked me up Uncle Mike. I'll always treasure coming to visit the store in Millwood after church and you hooking me up with free sodas. I'm sad that you had to go before your time but I'm happy that you are no longer suffering. I know I will see you again, kiss all our family up there for me and keep an eye out for us all down here. Until I get to hug you again Uncle Mike. Love you very much, give Aunt Glenda, your kids and grandkids, and all your sisters and your remaining brother a sign you're doing alright on the other side.
