“ I loved Mrs. Hunter, she was a dear sweet lady that I originally met when we worked at Lincoln County Memorial Hospital. I was always happy to see her when we crossed paths in later years. I'm glad I got to know her. God comfort her family and bless her memory. She will be missed.

“ Mildred was such a sweet lady, I will miss her. We were good friends, I enjoyed our visits over the years, watching Cardinal baseball together, and collecting buttons. We had good times eating out at all the local restaurants, she especially enjoyed the cherry pie at JR Diamonds. So many fond memories I will always cherish.

“ Mildred was a wonderful, respectful and beautiful woman. I loved driving her to her appointments on my OATS van. We shared so many things in common and crafting was a main topic of our conversations. I loved going to her yard sales and she once gifted me a jar of buttons that I still have to this day. GOD received a beautiful Angel. Until we meet again my friend I have pleasure in my memories of you.
