Millie grew up as part of a large family and learned quickly to be a hard worker on the family's farm. Millie graduated from Lewistown High School in 1970. After graduation,
Millie worked at a local nursing home and at a local restaurant as the head cook. After marrying Bob, they lived in Hannibal and Palmyra until moving to Bowling Green in 2013. Millie had worked in several restaurants in the Hannibal area, and as a nurse's aide in Quincy, Illinois. She later worked at Watlow, and then General Mills, from where she retired.

Millie enjoyed watching murder mysteries on BBC and old westerns. She loved camping, flower gardening, crocheting, sewing, and making quilts for her family. Most of all, Millie loved every moment spent with her family and cherished her long-lasting marriage.

Millie's family would like to thank Community Loving Care Hospice, and especially Jen and Michelle for being so caring and ensuring she was comfortable during her time in hospice care.

Online condolences may be made at www.bibbveach.com. In lieu of flowers, donations may be payable to Community Loving Care Hospice or the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Bowling Green, MO.

“ Millie was quite simply “ The Best”. The best friend, best wife, best mother, best cook, best worker, best seamstress etc. she excelled at everything she did. Her laughter was infectious and her heart pure gold. I imagine the streets she’s walking on in heaven dull in comparison! She will be greatly missed by everyone who had the privilege of knowing her. I feel honored to call her my friend. My Heartfelt condolences to her loving family ! You were her world, her greatest love, her pride and joy and her purpose for living. May God comfort and guide you during this sorrowful time. 🙏

“ I had the pleasure of working with Millie for a few years at General Mills. I cannot express how caring and thoughtful she was. Also she was a worker! She was always willing to help. She worked circles around us younger kids! And the next day bring you a pie! She was one of a kind! Very sorry for your loss. Rip Millie!
