“ Sweet cousin Missy I cannot begin to tell you how much I hurt that you are gone. I will miss you always especially on our shared birthday. I take comfort that you have reunited with your Mom & Dad whom you always missed so very much and with all those who left us and were ready to welcome you with a loving embrace. I will see you again someday but until then I will carry you always in my heart

“ Missy May, you have been in my heart forever and in my oldest and warmest memories. Full of spark, fun, laughter and love, you were one of the greatest gifts I ever received. Going “up home” with my family when we were young were some of the neatest adventures I LOOKED FORWARD TO. When we left, there was an emptiness that could be filled by no one else. You, in your love and light, turned that around, letting us cousins know how much we were missed...until each great time we would meet again. You always made “us” feel important. But that’s how it was in your life, that everyone you met knew they were someone special... loved. Your heart was immense, your love and compassion for anyone and everyone you met could not be matched. You were someone special! Couldn’t tell you that enough and missed you too much in this short life. Keeping that special love you gave of yourself to everyone in my heart. To you and your family, I LOVE YOU!

“ Missy, thank you for everything. Thank you for being someone I could go to for anything that was needed. Words can't explain the influence you were to me and a lot of others. Your door was always open for anyone that needed a place to go to. You truly cared for us all. God gained an angle. This world won't be the same without you my friend. Fly high, till we meet again!
