“ I pray that these humble words will bring some comfort. As the Principal of St. Clement School, I knew him as a hard working father, dedicated to doing anything he could to help make education as good as it could be for his children. He was a dedicated Catholic, a pillar of his parish, and extended his abilities to the larger community which included Bowling Green. He was a great family man.

I admired Nolan Miller and am proud to have known him. From Mrs Betty Deters, principal (ret) St Clement, and Aloys Deters.
