“ This woman showed me such kindness and how strong a woman can be. I met her at a time in life when my strength was low, and watching her strength gave me hope. Her smiles and the way she continued to enjoy her life, and handle all the adverse situations in her life also gave me strength. I loved her laughter, and she was such a pretty woman with eyes that smiled. I am sorry to have missed out on the last few years of her life. My prayers and thoughts to the family as I know how much she loved them and they loved her.
