“ I remember growing up when you guys came to the house uncle Allan always had the best stories. One of the things I always remember is that he never drove when he was with aunt Suzi. When they were together she always drove. I always enjoyed talking to uncle Allan. He always had something interesting to talk about.

“ Allan was a household fixture in our home (Mae and Elmer Thurman of rural Curryville) along with Bill Pettey, E.W. Branstetter and Tom Rogers as they were great friends with my brother Wayne. We remember when he and Sandy dated back in the 60's and kept track of his marriage to Sharon and the kids through working at Hillebrand Insurance (with his car collection). and when he and Sandy were re united. then through face book--his memory will be with me forever!!
