

Philip E. Brown

December 27, 1954 - June 13, 2018

Philip Edward Brown, age 63 of Bowling Green, passed away June 13, 2018 at the SSM St. Joseph Hospital in St. Charles.

Graveside services will be held at 10:30am on Monday at Millcreek Cemetery in Silex, with Rev. John Bateman officiating. Visitation will be held from 10:00am until time of services at the cemetery.

Philip was born December 27, 1954 in Plainview, TX, the son of Jack B. and Betty K. Hart Brown. He married Wanda Williams March 24, 1978 in Center, MO. She survives.

Other survivors include son Aaron Brown of Louisiana; daughter Amanda Niffen (James) of Annada; granddaughter Shayla Niffen; brothers Don Brown (Pat) of Russellville, AR, Steven Brown (Margie) of Silex and Nathan Brown (Janet) of Michigan; sister Marlene Astling (Joe) of Uvalde, TX; nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents.

Philip was born in Texas, moved to Missouri when he was a teenager, spent time in Georgia, and moved back to Missouri later in life. He served in the United States Navy, as well as the Army. Philip attended Hannibal Lagrange College where he earned his Pastoral Degree. He worked at the St. Francis Hospital in Columbus, GA and Truman Neurological Center in Independence, MO, later moving to Annada in 1999. In 2004 he received a liver transplant.

Philip began preaching at Eolia Baptist Church and later also served Clarksville, Joy Mission in Elsberry and Frankford, Millcreek and Ramsey Creek Baptist Church. Philip enjoyed spending time with his family, especially his granddaughter.

Memorials may be made to the donor's choice.

Cemetery Details

Millcreek Cemetery

Silex, MO

Previous Events

Visitation

JUN 18. 10:00 AM (CT)

Millcreek Cemetery
Silex, MO

Graveside Services

JUN 18. 10:30 AM (CT)

Millcreek Cemetery
Silex, MO