

Phyllis "Mikki" Ingram

July 24, 2012

Phyllis "Mikki" Ingram, age 82 of Bowling Green passed away Tuesday July 24, 2012 at the Maple Grove Lodge in Louisiana. No services will be held per her request. She was born September 7, 1929, in St. Louis, the daughter of Joe and Mildred Holcomb DeMarco. She was married to Bill Naive. They lived in St. Louis, Springfield, IL and Portland OR. He preceded her in death. Survivors include a son Daniel Naive and his wife Mary of Portland, OR; two grandchildren Angie Beers of Tigard, OR, Scott Naive of Portland, OR; four great grandchildren Brodie and Layne Naive and Erik and Kenny Beers. In 1972, Phyllis moved to Bowling Green to live with her mother Mildred Ingram and step father Glenn Ingram. She was a talented artist and loved her dogs and cats. Memorials may be made to Pike County Relay for Life at Dottie White, 17762 Hwy NN, Bowling Green, MO. 63334 (American Cancer Society)