“ I'm saddened to hear of Rick's passing. We had worked together over the past decade. Rick was one of the very best Operators that I have ever had the pleasure of working with. There were times when I depended on Rick to watch over my safety in certain situations, and I never doubted his abilities or willingness to do so. His word was his bond. He made the rough days or nights a bit lighter at times with his wit. Rick was always a quick learner, hard working to a fault and very candid with his opinions. He took pride in any job or task he was assigned. I'm most grateful that I could count on Rick as a friend, and honored to think that he considered me one as well. To Rick's family- Perhaps you aren't aware, but he talked fondly about each of you as time or the situation allowed. I know he had a great love for his grandchildren. My condolences to each of you during this difficult time.
