

Robert Lynn Barton

February 6, 1943 - May 25, 2025

Robert Lynn Barton, 82, of Curryville, passed away Sunday, May 25, 2025, at Aspire Senior Living Center in Jonesburg, Missouri.

Per Robert's wishes, there will be no services. Bibb-Veach Funeral Homes and Crematory is handling the cremation rites.

Robert was born February 6, 1943, in Wellsville, Missouri to Robert and Mary (Kincaide) Barton. He was united in marriage to Eugenia "Jeanie" Sue Norton on October 29, 1960. Jeanie survives.

Also surviving are daughters, Lynda Woods (Keith) and Lori Shambach (David); several grandchildren and great-grandchildren; brother, John Barton; and sister, Mary Ann Brown.

Robert was preceded in death by his parents, and siblings, Betty Kerr, Dorothy Nelson, and Bill Barton.

Robert attended school at the one-room schoolhouse in Ashley, Missouri. His family also spent some time residing in Clarksville, Missouri and Illinois. Once he and Jeanie married, they moved to Curryville where they still resided.

In his younger years, Robert worked for area farmers. An opportunity arose with a position at Hercules. Robert was employed there until his retirement.

In his free time, Robert liked to hunt squirrels, rabbits, and especially quail. He enjoyed watching sports on TV. Robert loved riding motorcycles, and he had ridden to every state except Hawaii.

“ He was an huge fan of Nasscar. I remember all the aggravation games we would play. Competitive for sure. Aunt Jeannie and I never had a chance. He loved his fishing and camping moments and of course his motorcycle days. His favorite but not so favorite souvenir from Alaska was his speeding ticket he got. The old farts club isn't the same without you. I know when it was your time that mom was there to bring you home.
